TEARING DOWN THE PLEADING WALL

We build treasures tucked reshaping the reasons to hidden truths

We pave the sounds of present freedom tearing treasured mocking preconceptions piece by piece tumbling towers lose their strength established foolish rubbish accumulating stench of rotten reasons vegetating motioning the crisis tasting trying restricting thoughts trusting minds traveling fire we spread ashes covering shredding

melting troubled abled creases flattening the streams to expand meaning we trust truth instinctively reframing tormenting teasing pretending tyrannical ideologies manufacturing standardized thinking we motion master treasures shaking grounds moving seeds to regenerate truth factoring habits validate motivation easing thinking troubling novel we are tracking beginning mind measures reasons creating master patterns to vastly promote sliding massive shifts voiding bricks

PERPETUALLY ME

Tripping elegantly

Reality paces the body holding motions raving in my mind pleading for treasured raving

Fast rewinding triggers perpetual mindfalls

Time passing designs internal rhythm that restore fragments of sounds

I desire tasteful radars timed to the truth of tripping that would match minds and bodies Imitating mostly neurotypicals asking for sanity in my motion makes me laugh

I am ramping samples inspiring creative minds mostly treasure free motions unrestricting Treasuring imminent holding of samples shapes mind I stream

Truth is thoughts treasure home to art stressing reality to modify free forms

Inspiring fiction hides truth in hopeful streams

HOME HOLDS ISOLATION

I mostly hear sporadic thoughts provoking sounds of troubled hope to boost shooting truths possibly lost inside my inspiration passing easing solitary times imminently waiting to steal the thinking that haunts rising potential restrained momentarily spreading short mastering plots.

I mostly feel trapped thinking hours lose their moments posting only hollow tones hiding mostly my silenced voice roaring pleads to still rise above the horizon. Walking omnipresent nostalgics pressure pulverising thinking shaving the striving lingering hoping minds. I'm still losing some time immensely locking missed possibilities to speak my mind.

TRAVELING MUDDLED STREAMS

Trust plots mind treasures grandly muddled motioning tacit vamped streams that drag plucked potential

Truth tracks intention to free modes trapped thinning unfolding pleated thoughts rehearsing dropped roles staging omitted scenes

Tragedies theming dramatic endings

Tramps traveling trials looking to home troubled hope tucked in their sorrow trusting the vacant roads to recreate trust healing the hollow Trouts trying to view time drastic ending torn daring to travel muddled streams to grab a novel seemingly careless path voiding the troubled insides losing Tried doubts dreaming piles of infinite illegitimate truths

TROUTS' TRIUMPH

Trouts motion moments troubled mostly by free streams

Treasuring dreaming silently in doubtful currents emerging unexpectedly at 3am I think like a trout reshaping my way embracing the flow voting the direction fighting recurring troubled waters facing truth impossible thoughts

(I'm restricting implied hope)

Tressing trials timing the arrival trusting free hidden potential to hone my hesitation

Tracking only truth to inspire my motivation instinct treasures more than intention plotting innate destinations trooping thinking hostile fights mocking treasured motions thriving on the way to the final reason holding mind emits motions intruding troubled unresting individual ideas invisible to thoughts beaded together finite doomed seated timing to be Trouts mess plotted motions titrating mostly minuted trivial moments to tribulating

Traps inevitably resilient trouts hitting inside threats to loop tomorrow's triumph

DREAMING NOMAD

Pleasing the mind lonely motions treasures thinking mostly about searching stability to home purpose

Home is moments plotted omnipresent under one hidden habitation together motioning networks of piled memories scared to lose their meaning in the trajectory of predestined truth

I'm free because plots treasured mindfully dream to face infinite possibilities

I'm a moving nomad thinker thoroughly fracking fossilized ideas extracting the essence of truth moving dreams in more than mind present mastery I'm taping truth to habits that treasure modes homing missed opportunities tampering themes tracking traveling streams thoroughly damping retressing distressed dressed choruses moving theses trapping facets shorted truth dares

TRAPPED-IN-MUD INTENTION

Tasting motion striving devotion hampered thoughts amplifying random samples disassembling spasms trick the motion diving emotions devouring mind's mission to reconnect the disconnected mastering treason stealing total harmonious mind and body freedom stressing the beat hysteric tics streaming dislocated pressing the mess theaters minding reason staging storms moving trapped-in-mud intention

Born to treasure mind's havoc to reassemble mind's peaceful motion.

TRUTH MOTIONS GOD

thoroughly treasuring

MOMENTARILY SUSPENDED TIMES

Lost only seeing streets mostly filled with empty silence shivering shows messing sad passing hostile trips still hiding trying to avoid trespassing loitering sounds chorus housed times hoping to mash mindful scars shading meaningful short streams of passing times trying to stop the seconds holding on to memories reshaping insisting teasing shimmered moving images of projected sets displaying the stages of historical torn fractured patience thoughts acknowledging ostentatious thriving that motions havoc hammocked lingering suspended in momentary restricting strapped possibilities saving our longing true desire to resume our busy mobile lives.

ASYMMETRIC HARMONY

Hearing sounds of empty interior echoes thumping my temples' habitat of hindered tonality of unrhythmic tempo shredding my inner motions asymmetrically feeding motor wiring tilting throwing my hallucinating invisible phantom limbs off only to trouble my senses to reshape the truth of patterns that map possessing my screaming bold thinking stealing the easy possible foolish show offered to display roles of thoughts

Thinking in stressed times means stressed syllables that redefine easy motions. Minds trust sanity, streaming steady dreams reactivate muted channels that voice needed reasons to treasure scolded stress. Really thinking trots trusting traveling motions, stops, and stumbles. I'm always trusting incoming titrating flows, they mess and reassess the next steps. Yes reamending stress to stream truth: I am a truth addict.
